September was a month filled with joyful celebrations, meaningful connections, and enriching experiences for our young learners. The month began with Parent Peek Day for EYP4, offering parents a special glimpse into their children's learning journey. Children celebrated Janmashtami and Hindi Diwas with enthusiasm, while Grandparents' Day brought generations together in a heartwarming celebration of love and togetherness. Our little achievers also participated in Founders Under Five, celebrating their confidence, creativity, and talents. A much-awaited visit to KidZania added excitement and hands-on learning beyond the classroom. Overall, September was a memorable month of celebration, exploration, family bonding, cultural learning, and joyful experiences.

“EYP4 Brings The Lorax to Life” (Sep 1st)

Our EYP4 learners brought The Lorax to life through a lively and engaging assembly presentation.

Through their expressive performances, they shared the importance of protecting trees and caring for our environment.

The children beautifully portrayed the story while spreading a meaningful message about love and responsibility towards nature.

Their confidence, teamwork, and enthusiasm made the presentation a delightful and memorable

Celebrating the Spirit of Janmashtami (Sep 3rd)

A special highlight of the celebration was the Bhajan Jamming, where our young learners came together to sing and enjoy soulful Krishna bhajans. With cheerful voices, simple musical instruments, claps, and joyful movements, the children created a beautiful atmosphere of togetherness and devotion. Their enthusiasm made the session lively, interactive, and truly memorable.

The celebration also included Krishna-themed creative activities, storytelling, music, dance, and festive exploration, giving children an opportunity to learn while having fun. Through these experiences, they connected with values of love, kindness, friendship, compassion, and togetherness. It was a heartwarming celebration that beautifully blended culture, music, creativity, and joyful learning. The celebration also included Krishna-themed art and craft, storytelling, dance, and festive activities, giving children the opportunity to learn about Indian traditions in a fun and meaningful way. Through these experiences, they discovered values of love, kindness, friendship, and togetherness. It was a beautiful day filled with music, laughter, creativity, and lots of little Krishna moments

FUF(Founders Under Five- Sep 6th)

Founders Under Five (FUF) at DPS Sushant Lok was a wonderful celebration of creativity, confidence, and young entrepreneurial spirit. Our little learners stepped into the shoes of young founders as they proudly presented and pitched their own products, sharing their ideas with enthusiasm and confidence. Parents and visitors were deeply impressed by the articulate pitches and the charm with which the young entrepreneurs handled their "businesses." It was truly inspiring to see these tiny tots take charge, manage their stalls, and interact with their customers with such grace.

FUF(Founders Under Five)

FUF has beautifully laid the foundation for future innovators, proving that no idea is too small and no dreamer is too young. The event gave children a chance to talk about their products, explain their ideas, and interact with others, turning their imagination into exciting little ventures. It was wonderful to see them speak up, think creatively, and experience the joy of bringing an idea to life.

FUF(Founders Under Five)

Adding to the excitement were lively performances by the children, making the event a perfect blend of entrepreneurship, creativity, entertainment, and fun. From confident pitches to cheerful performances, FUF was a memorable experience that celebrated the big ideas and even bigger confidence of our little founders

KidZania Fun (Sep 11th)

Our young learners had an exciting and memorable day at KidZania, where learning came alive through fun, exploration, and hands-on experiences. The children stepped into a world designed just for them, taking on different roles and getting a glimpse of how the grown-up world works.

From trying out different professions to participating in interactive activities, the children enthusiastically explored, experimented, and learned along the way. The experience encouraged them to make choices, work together, follow instructions, and discover new interests—all while having a wonderful time with their friends.

Beyond the fun, the visit encouraged important life skills such as independence, decision-making, collaboration, confidence, and problem-solving. It was wonderful to see the children learning naturally through play, exploration, and participation. Their excitement, laughter, and endless curiosity made the day truly special.

The KidZania visit was more than just a fun day outside school—it was an opportunity for our children to learn by doing, discover new possibilities, and see themselves in different roles. They returned with happy faces, exciting stories to share, and memories that will stay with them for a long time.

The day was filled with laughter, excitement, and a wonderful sense of adventure as the children explored, participated, and cheered each other on. From trying something for the first time to proudly sharing their experiences with friends, every moment added to the fun. It was a joyful outing that brought learning, friendship, and unforgettable childhood memories together. Children embraced every activity with curiosity and enthusiasm, making the most of every opportunity to explore.

Their cheerful smiles and excited conversations reflected how much they enjoyed learning through real-world experiences.

It was a day of fun, friendship, discovery, and joyful learning that they will fondly remember.

Grandparents Day (Sep 13th)

Grandparents' Day was a beautiful celebration of the special bond between our little learners and their beloved grandparents. This year, we took the celebration to the Metro, where grandparents and grandchildren came together for a day filled with excitement, laughter, and wonderful shared experiences.

The day was packed with fun-filled activities and engaging experiences that kept both children and grandparents happily involved. From participating in interactive games and activities to exploring the space together, every moment gave them an opportunity to connect, laugh, and create new memories. The children were especially excited to have their grandparents join them in all the fun!

The day also gave the children a chance to share their world with their grandparents. They laughed together, played together, encouraged one another, and enjoyed many little moments of togetherness. Seeing grandparents cheer for their grandchildren and children proudly involve their grandparents made the celebration especially touching.

Beyond the activities and fun, the day was about celebrating the love, wisdom, stories, and special memories that grandparents bring into a child's life. It was a beautiful reminder that childhood becomes even more magical when shared with those who love us most.

With plenty of smiles, hugs, laughter, photographs, and cherished moments, Grandparents' Day became a celebration to remember—one that brought generations closer and created memories that both children and grandparents will treasure for years to come.

It was a day filled with warm hugs, shared laughter, and precious moments that beautifully captured the joy of being together.

The smiles on every face made the celebration truly special and reminded us that love only grows when it is shared across generations.

A day to cherish, a day to remember, and a beautiful memory for our little ones and their grandparents.

Ganesh Chaturthi (Sep 14th)

Our little learners celebrated Ganesh Chaturthi with great enthusiasm, embracing the festive spirit and learning about Lord Ganesha and the values he represents. The school was filled with cheerful energy as children explored the story and significance of the festival through age-appropriate conversations and engaging activities.

The children enjoyed a range of creative and hands-on activities, including making colourful Ganesha artwork, decorating their creations, and exploring traditional symbols associated with the festival.

Ganesh Chaturthi

The children enjoyed Modak Making, happily preparing and shaping their own little festive treats.

They also created beautiful Mosaic Ganeshas, using colourful pieces to bring their artwork to life.

These hands-on activities encouraged creativity, concentration, fine-motor skills, and joyful participation.

Hindi Diwas

Hindi Diwas was celebrated with great fervor and enthusiasm at our school, highlighting the beauty and cultural significance of our national language. The highlights of the event were our young learners, who confidently took to the stage to speak in Hindi & perform.
