The timings of the Open House have been structured in your best interest. You are therefore requested to strictly adhere to the timings given above. Your child must be dressed in proper school uniform for attending the Open House.

We look forward to your participation in the Open House for a fruitful discussion about your child's performance and also to augment the learning support that can be provided to the student.

We encourage parents to actively contribute to the ongoing E-waste Collection Drive and visit the Trade Show being organized by our students on the same day.

Regards
