From The Principal's Desk

"Great leaders don't set out to be leaders — they set out to make a difference."

Dear Parents,

As the months of August and September unfolded, Delhi Public School Bharuch resonated with enthusiasm, creativity, and cultural vibrance. The spirit of unity, gratitude, and festivity filled the corridors as students engaged in activities that blended learning with joy.

From artistic expressions to heartfelt performances, every celebration became a moment of togetherness and pride. The air was alive with colours, music, and laughter, reflecting the school's belief that education extends beyond classrooms into experiences that nurture values and creativity.

Our youngest learners too immersed themselves in playful learning, discovering the beauty of tradition, colour, and compassion through hands on experiences. Each day reflected the joy of exploration and the warmth of shared moments.

These two months stood as a reminder that at DPS Bharuch, education is not just about lessons, it's about shaping hearts, inspiring minds, and celebrating life in all its hues.

Warm regards
