From The Principal's Desk

"Knowledge is power. Information is liberating. Education is the premise of progress."

The months of December and January brought a vibrant close to the year and a spirited beginning to the next at Delhi Public School, Bharuch. The campus resonated with energy, enthusiasm, and purpose as students engaged in experiences that nurtured intellect, fitness, values, and joyful bonding.

The season witnessed enriching platforms like Edu Expo 3.0 and Businessiva, where young minds explored innovation, entrepreneurship, and real world learning. The much awaited Book Fair rekindled the love for reading, while the grandeur of Sports Day celebrated discipline, teamwork, and the spirit of sportsmanship.

Festive warmth filled the air with the Christmas Celebration, spreading messages of love and sharing, followed by the colourful skies of Uttarayan, reflecting joy, tradition, and togetherness. Patriotic fervour reached its peak during Republic Day, reminding students of their duties and pride as responsible citizens.

Special moments of bonding were created through Grandparents Day, honouring wisdom, love, and generational values, while the Farm Visit offered hands on learning and a deeper connection with nature and sustainability.

Together, these months beautifully echoed the ethos of DPS Bharuch where every opportunity becomes an experience, every celebration becomes a value lesson, and learning extends far beyond the classroom.

Warm regards

Edu Expo 3.0

“Education is not preparation for life; education is life itself.”

Edu Expo 3.0 was a vibrant celebration of knowledge, creativity, and innovation, where learning came alive beyond textbooks. Students confidently showcased models, experiments, and projects reflecting critical thinking and teamwork. The exhibition inspired curiosity and hands-on learning, proving that education is an ever-evolving journey. It successfully nurtured young minds and encouraged experiential learning.

Uttarayan Celebration

“Let our dreams soar as high as the kites in the sky.”

Uttarayan is a joyful festival that marks the Sun’s northward journey. Our school celebrated it with a short skit spreading the message of unity, melodious songs filled with festive cheer and a safe kite-flying activity involving parents, students and teachers that added colour and excitement to the day.

“ May every kite remind us to rise, shine, and celebrate together.”

Pre - Primary Farm Visit

“The soil is the great connector of lives, the source and destination of all.”

The children saw green fields, animals and fresh vegetables which made them curious and happy. They learned where fruits, vegetables, and milk come from in a very simple and joyful way. The visit helped them connect with nature and understand the importance of farmers. It was a day full of smiles, learning and new memories.

“The love for farming is rooted in the love for life.”

Grand Parents' Day Celebration

“Grandparents make the world a little softer, a little kinder and a little warmer.”

The little ones welcomed their grandparents with smiles, songs and handmade cards. Grandparents shared stories, love and blessings, making the day very special. The celebration helped children understand the value of love, care and family bonds. It was a beautiful day filled with happiness and togetherness.

‘Grandparents make childhood more loving and memorable.’
