

DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL BHARUCH Circular

DPSB/CIR-NOT/2026-27/050

Date: 1st September, 2026

Dear Parent, Greetings!!

"The one who has controlled the mind and senses, and has realized the Self, is eligible to attain the state of supreme peace and freedom." - Lord Krishna

Janmashtami, the birth of Lord Krishna, is celebrated with great enthusiasm all over the world. It is believed that Lord Vishnu reincarnated in the form of Lord Krishna on the day of Janmashtami. To celebrate this auspicious day, the Pre - Primary wing of Delhi Public School, Bharuch, is celebrating Janmashtami on 3rd September, 2026 (Thursday). This celebration aims to bring awareness among the children about the rich and varied heritage of Indian culture.

Kindly Note:

- Students have to come dressed as – Krishna for boys and Radha for girls.
- Students can bring any suitable props according to their performances
- Students can prepare any one-liner quote or song related to Janmashtami.
- The activity will be conducted during regular school timings.
- Dispersal will be at regular timings.
