

Delhi Public School Harni successfully hosted a DPT vaccination drive . Parents and students greatly appreciated the convenience of having this essential health milestone managed directly at the school. It was a successful initiative focused on keeping our school community safe, healthy, and protected.

