EB

IP

MIMUN 6.0

PRAGYA CHHABRA

MIMUN 6.0

MIMUN 6.0

CHAIR | IP

EB | COMMITTEE

PRAGYA CHHABRA

Pragya Chhabra is a dynamic media professional with a background in journalism, radio, and digital content. A former reporter for The Times of India and a digital news startup, she now works with Lokmat Times and has hosted over 40 events. Pragya explored radio hosting at Radio City, won top debate awards, and co-authored five anthologies. She actively creates content as a journalist, voice-over artist, podcaster, YouTuber, and social media manager. Having spoken at Nagpur's first TEDx event and having been featured on hoardings citywide for a renowned jewellery brand, she continues to inspire through her versatile presence and impactful storytelling.

ISHITA KANHERE

MIMUN 6.0

SCRIBE | IP

EB | COMMITTEE

ISHITA KANHERE

Ishita Kanhere is a dynamic youth leader, public speaker, content writer, and social advocate passionate about leadership, communication, and youth empowerment. Currently pursuing her Bachelor of Arts in Multimedia and Mass Communication (BAMMC), she has demonstrated exceptional leadership as the Program Director of Yuva India, State Vice President of DASF, and Co-Founder & CEO of the Modern India Education & Welfare Foundation. Professionally, she gained hands-on journalism experience as a Content Writer Intern at Navbharat—contributing to projects like Navrashtra and Birthday Frame—and is currently a News Anchor, Reporter, and Voice-Over Artist with Prime Time. An active veteran of Model United Nations (MUNs), Youth Parliaments, and elite debating forums, Ishita is also a trained classical dancer and certified visual artist. Combining her core strengths in public speaking, strategic research, and team management, she is deeply interested in media, public policy, and social development. Her ultimate vision is to empower a generation of confident, responsible young leaders who leverage creative communication to drive meaningful and lasting social change.