ASHEL MARIAN

Ashel Marian is a second-year law student at Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur, with nearly a decade of competitive experience in the debating and Model United Nations (MUN) circuits. Discovering his passion for diplomacy in the seventh grade, Ashel has built an extensive track record spanning more than 60 national and international conferences. His international portfolio includes prestigious simulations such as Harvard MUN India, BITSMUN (Hyderabad & Goa), DGVMUN UAE, DMUN America, and DMUN Asia. Seamlessly bridging his legal education with practical diplomacy, Ashel has transitioned from an award-winning delegate to a sought-after Executive Board member and student coordinator specializing in humanitarian committees and human rights.
