NIHAR NILATKAR

An eleventh-grader and an IPMAT aspirant, Nihar Nilatkar is a dedicated young leader with 45+ participations in Model United Nations (MUN) and Youth Parliaments. His extensive circuit experience has not only honed his public speaking and negotiation skills but also instilled a strong commitment to addressing global challenges. As the founder and editor-in-chief of the circuit news page The Delegate Daily, a member of NGOs like The Zenith Order, and an activist in pressure groups like The Green Resistance, Nihar prioritizes substance over theatrics. His ability to adapt quickly, counter effectively, and maintain pressure on opposing delegates makes him a formidable presence in any committee.
