YUGAL ASWAANI

Yugal Aswaani brings sharp wit, infectious energy, and just the right amount of chaos to every committee he joins. Known for his engaging personality and knack for navigating committee dynamics, he believes in balancing meaningful debate with a touch of humour. Beyond the committee room, he enjoys playing cricket and planning his next tattoo. Whether steering a heated debate or lightening the mood, Yugal ensures that every committee experience is engaging, dynamic, and memorable.

KALPAK THAOKAR

He is a confident, enthusiastic, and ambitious individual with a keen interest in business, geopolitics, international relations, and current affairs. Having participated in 23 Model United Nations conferences in various roles—including Delegate, Executive Board member, Organising Committee member, and Secretary-General of CENMUN'26—he has developed strong leadership, communication, and organisational skills. He also enjoys football and playing percussion instruments such as the drums, tabla, and djembe. He considers himself adaptable, determined, and eager to learn through new experiences.
