INTER-HOUSE NUKKAD NATAK COMPETITION

24TH JANUARY, 2026

An Inter-House Nukkad Natak Competition was successfully conducted at Delhi Public School Kamptee Road, Nagpur on Saturday, 24th January 2026 to mark National Girl Child Day. The main objective of the event was to spread awareness about the importance of educating and empowering the girl child in society. The students from all four houses participated enthusiastically and presented powerful street plays highlighting issues such as gender discrimination, child marriage, female foeticide, lack of education for girls and the need for equal opportunities.

Through meaningful dialogues, expressive acting and impactful messages, the participants conveyed strong social messages to the audience. Each team showcased creativity, confidence and teamwork and the performances were judged on the basis of content, expression, coordination, voice modulation and overall impact. The audience including teachers and students appreciated the sincerity and efforts of the performers.

The competition not only enhanced the students' communication and acting skills but also sensitised them towards social responsibilities. The event concluded with the announcement of results and encouraging words by the judges motivating the students to continue using art as a medium for social change. Overall, the competition was a great success and left a lasting impression on everyone present.
