PARENT-TEACHER MEETING GRADE: PRESCHOOL TO II

DATE: 25TH JULY 2026

Delhi Public School Kamptee Road, Nagpur conducted the Parent-Teacher Meeting for the students of Preschool to Grade II on 25th July, 2026. The meeting provided an excellent platform for parents and teachers to discuss each child's academic progress, classroom behaviour and overall development. The interactive sessions strengthened the partnership between home and school, ensuring the holistic growth of every student.

During the meeting, the teachers shared detailed feedback on the students' academic performance. The parents were guided on effective study habits and areas requiring improvement. They were also encouraged to motivate their children to actively participate in co-curricular and school activities for their overall development.

The parents were advised to ensure their child's regular attendance and were requested to check the DPS App and the school almanac regularly for important updates and circulars. They were reminded to follow the prescribed book schedule and were informed that all leave applications should be submitted through the DPS App to ensure smooth communication and record maintenance.

The meeting concluded on a positive and constructive note, with parents appreciating the guidance provided by the teachers. The interaction reinforced the importance of continuous collaboration between the parents and school in nurturing responsible, confident and successful learners.
