

DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL KAMPTEE ROAD, NAGPUR

JANMASHTAMI CELEBRATION

4RD SEPTEMBER, 2026

The joyous festival of Janmashtami was celebrated with great enthusiasm, devotion and vibrant festive spirit at Delhi Public School Kamptee Road, Nagpur. The young learners, adorned in beautiful traditional attire, added a delightful charm and colour to the celebration, creating an atmosphere reminiscent of the rich cultural heritage associated with the birth of Lord Krishna.

The celebration was further enriched with a range of engaging and creative activities thoughtfully designed for the little ones. The Preparatory students enthusiastically decorated and embellished mukuts (Krishna's crowns), which they proudly carried home as cherished mementoes. The Nursery students created colourful peacock feathers in their drawing books, acquainting themselves with one of the most iconic symbols associated with Lord Krishna. Meanwhile, the Pre-Nursery students joyfully decorated peacock feathers and flutes using an array of colours and creative materials.

The celebration provided a meaningful platform for the young learners to explore the cultural significance of Janmashtami while nurturing their imagination, creativity, and appreciation for Indian traditions. The day was indeed a harmonious blend of learning, artistry, devotion, and joyous celebration, leaving behind beautiful memories in the hearts of the little ones.

Little Krishnas and Big Smiles!

The little learners of Preschool celebrated Janmashtami with devotion, creativity and festive joy. Dressed in beautiful traditional attire, they explored the spirit of the festival through colourful peacock feathers, flutes and Krishna crown-making activities, making the celebration a delightful blend of culture, creativity and cherished memories.
