

DPS SUSHANT LOK-GURUGRAM RECEIVES CITY LEVEL LITERARY LEADERSHIP RECOGNITION

Delhi Public School Sushant Lok, Gurugram has been proudly honoured with the Education World Literary Leadership Award – City Level at the National Young Authors' Fair (NYAF) 2025–26, India Edition. This recognition celebrates the school's remarkable achievement of publishing over 100 books on Bri Books, an AI-powered self-publishing platform, and reflects our steadfast commitment to fostering a vibrant culture of writing among young learners.

NYAF brings together young authors from more than 30 countries, providing a platform that celebrates creativity and literary talent on a global scale. The initiative has also received recognition from international leaders, including Disney and the Discovery Channel, who have highlighted the outstanding accomplishments of our students and the visionary guidance of our school leaders.

Heartiest congratulations to our talented students, devoted mentors, and the entire DPS Sushant Lok family for this remarkable achievement!
