

Ref. No. IDST/3366

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR STUDENTS

Date 27/11/2021

1. The student will adhere to the Academic Calendar specified by Academic Authorities to ensure the smooth completion of their program.
2. Students are advised to come in formal dress code of IDST regularly. IDST Institutional Uniform for Labs.
3. The student should be conscientiously honest in all academic activities and with all staff and co-students.
4. Students should carry their Identity Card regularly of IDST, if violated they are not allowed into the premises.
5. Students are accountable to meet all academic credentials including actively participating in educational tours or industrial visits accompanying Faculty members after obtaining completing Undertaking process from Parents as a mandatory process.
6. Students should participate in seminars, discussions, presentations under the guide ship of faculty and mentors in their respective areas of the discipline.
7. Students should follow all the guidelines with respect to seminars and project submissions to their mentors and guides.
8. The student should maintain regular attendance for all sessions during the day. As per Chaudhary Charan Singh University/ Atal Bihari Vajpayee Medical University norms, every student should meet more than 75% attendance in theory and clinical posting criteria to attend end examination for each semester.
9. All students should follow the curriculum according to DCI/Chaudhary Charan Singh University/ Atal Bihari Vajpayee Medical University norms.
10. The student is accountable to complete all academic standards including Practical's, Record submission, participating in workshops as per schedule.
11. They should follow updates regular by notice board, IDST website so as not to miss any important information.
12. The student should switch off their mobile phones while in the classroom, Laboratory, and Library. The mobile phone is strictly prohibited in the exam hall during the examination.
13. Ragging is strictly prohibited in the campus. If found guilty and proven, stern disciplinary action will be taken.
14. Any misbehaviour or in-disciplinary acts will result in severe punishment to maintain homogeneity in the premises.
15. Destroying/Damaging of college property would be liable for punishment and compensation of loss caused by the act.
16. Outsiders or strangers are not entertained into the campus by students of IDST, without prior permission of right, concerned authorities.
17. Students are not encouraged to involve in anti-social, anti-national, immoral practices and anti-institutional activities within the campus.
18. Students must be present at the examination hall half an hour before the commencement of the examination. Communication with one another is strictly not permitted during the examination.
19. All the students should adhere to the rules and regulations by the examination department as specified and follow the instructions.
20. The student should not use unparliamentarily Language, should not have an impolite talk which offends other students or staff and if it is proved serious action would be taken by authorities.
21. Students are advised to utilize the free time to spend in the library and refer books.

Institute of Dental Studies & Technologies

Principal

