‘In diversity, there is beauty and strength.’

Dear Parent,
Greetings!

As we step into the vibrant month of October, we carry forward the spirit of Embracing Diversity and Inclusion, with the core value of Respect for Different Cultures. This month is dedicated to helping our students appreciate the richness of traditions, understand the beauty of differences, and celebrate unity in diversity.

The month is filled with festivities that highlight our shared cultural heritage. Our school will joyfully observe Gandhi Jayanti, Navratri, Dussehra, and Diwali, each celebration serving as a reminder of harmony and togetherness.

We would also like to inform you that “Together We Can” is scheduled for Grade IX this month. This important forum will enable parents to interact with teachers, review their child’s academic journey, and share queries. For Grades X, XI, and XII, the focus will remain on pre-board and mid-term examinations, ensuring students are well-prepared and confident.

We look forward to a month where academic dedication meets cultural celebration, fostering both growth and inclusivity in our school community.
