MONTFORT SCHOOL ROORKEE

► Excellence ► Achievement ► Love ► Happiness

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear members of the staff, parents, well-wishers and students.

Warm greetings to each of you.

As we turn the pages of yet another memorable chapter in the journey of Montfort School, Roorkee, I am filled with immense gratitude and pride. This Newsletter stands as a vibrant testimony to the creativity, talent, and spirit that live within the hearts of our students and the unwavering dedication of our entire school community.

At the very outset, I wish to extend my heartfelt appreciation to our Vice Principal, Brother Anand, Headmistress, devoted coordinators and Brother Gabriel Lakra who have guided our teams with care and clarity throughout the academic year.

Dear teachers and other staff members – your dedication is the backbone of all that we do. Whether it is in the classroom, on the sports field, on stage, or during quiet moments of guidance, you bring learning to life. I thank each one of you for not just teaching, but for inspiring, nurturing, and believing in every child.

Dear students – your creative work, participation in competitions, enthusiasm for sports, and passion for co-curricular activities have brought colour and meaning to our school life. This Newsletter reflects your energy, your dreams, and your growth. Keep exploring, keep questioning, and never stop learning — because learning is not a destination, but a way of living.

Dear parents – your trust and support are invaluable. Thank you for partnering with us in this noble mission of shaping lives. I urge you to continue journeying with us, guiding your children not only towards academic success, but also towards becoming compassionate, thoughtful, and responsible human beings. At Montfort, we believe that true education must go beyond books and examinations. It must touch the heart, shape the mind, and strengthen the character.

In this spirit, let us continue focusing every day on developing four key skills in our children listening, speaking, reading, and writing. These are not just language skills, but life skills — tools that help our students express themselves, understand others, and connect with the world meaningfully. As we nurture their minds, let us also guide their hearts toward kindness, empathy, and respect for all. Let us raise children who have a heart that beats for the vulnerable, for the elderly, for the forgotten, and for the least among us, children who grow up believing in the equality of the human race, and who live with the deep understanding that every person, regardless of status or background, is worthy of dignity.

Let me share a simple but powerful image with you.

In nature, the crimson rosella — a colourful parrot native to Australia — lives in flocks where every bird eats together, flies together, and rests together. There is no leader, no follower only unity in diversity. Big or small, bright or dull, every bird is equal in the sky they share. Let Montfort be like that flock — where every child soars, every teacher leads and learns, and every heart beats for others.

To the team that prepared this Newsletter - thank you for capturing the soul of our school through these pages. Your hard work is deeply appreciated.

As we look to the future, let us continue to grow not just in knowledge, but in Excellence, Achievement, Love and Happiness.

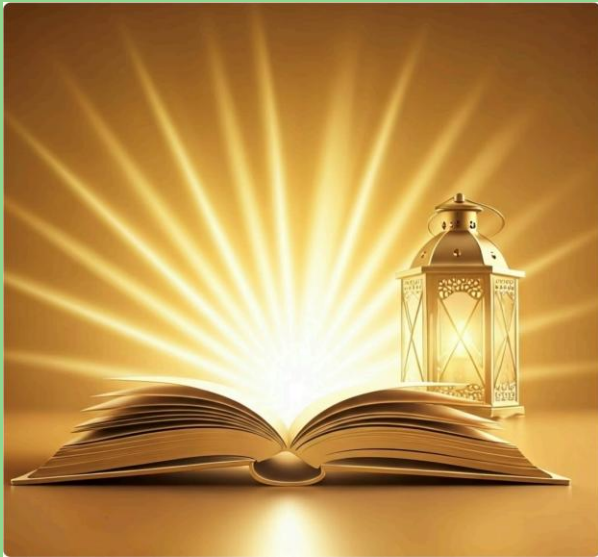

Let us be a school that doesn't just teach — but transforms.

With warm regards and blessings,

Bro. Albert Abraham, Principal

THE MONTFORTIAN PRINCIPLES

The Guiding Lights: our Vision and Mission

Our Vision

Apart from the vision of Christian schools, Montfortian education, in particular, aims to prepare the student for a life that is worth living. As individuals and members of the society the students need to be helped to develop qualities of the mind and heart as well as basic skills and attitudes. To achieve this the Montfortian education system is designed as person-oriented, social or the other oriented, professional or work oriented, national or citizen oriented and universal brotherhood and international understanding oriented. Montfortian education envisions working for the total development of the young. They are helped to discover their God-given potentials and work towards their fullest development in order to place them at the service of the society. It seeks to enable the young to search for the truth by training them to analyse reality, form critical judgments, search for solutions and work out a synthesis.

Our Mission

The Montfortian mission is to help the young develop into upright, creative and loyal citizens imbued with love and concern for others, spiritual sensitivity and a sense of personal freedom, liberty of thought, expression, belief, faith and Worship, equality of status and of opportunity and fraternity assuring the dignity of the individual and the unity and integrity of nations.

It envisions enabling the young to develop into a holistic personality and earn a living; and contributing to the economic, social, political and cultural progress of the nation.

Through value based and innovative learning, we empower them to think critically, communicate effectively, and lead responsibly, ready to meet life's challenges with confidence and moral clarity.

COORDINATOR'S MESSAGE

Rediscovering Connection in the Age of Information

In today's hyper-connected world, we are surrounded by an endless stream of information—news alerts, social media updates, messages, and notifications that compete for our attention every moment. While access to knowledge has never been easier, the sheer volume of digital information can leave us feeling overwhelmed, and ironically, disconnected.

As teachers, parents and learners, we all must pause and ask: amidst this information overload, where do we find space for genuine human interaction?

School activities—be it morning assemblies, competitions, debates, or cultural programs—offer that much-needed space. They are not just events on the calendar; they are opportunities to listen, collaborate, laugh, and grow together. These shared experiences cultivate empathy, build friendships, and remind us that learning is not confined to screens or the syllabus. This newsletter intends to celebrate those valuable moments of collaboration, teamwork and victory; moments that add to the beauty of school life and make it worth reminiscing, in the years to come. I also congratulate and thank the editors – both teachers and students- for going the extra mile to compile those beautiful moments together in a cohesive manner.

In an age where communication is often reduced to emojis and brief texts, the value of a face-to-face conversation, or a classroom discussion cannot be overstated. Participating in school life helps students develop social confidence, emotional intelligence, and a sense of belonging—qualities that no AI tool may realistically be able to imitate. I encourage our students to log out occasionally, step onto the field, the stage, or the discussion circle—and rediscover the joy of being present. Because in the end, education is not just about information; it's about transformation of yourself, and through you, of those around you.

THE CHAINS OF MY OWN FOLLY

*No conjecture had I, yet ventured still,
Impetuous steps betray'd my will.
Oaths and promises authored me,
Yet a paragon of dishonor I be.*

*Despair hath bound my soul in chain,
And misery speaketh loud of pain.
Paranoia doth cloud my way,
Yet dawn shall rise from night's decay.*

THE UNCONDITIONAL LOVE

*Once more you opened the door
Of my heart which was closed my soul,
Wounded by echoes of silence,
Afraid to ever feel whole.
You stepped in with light so tender
Soft as a whisper in spring,
Melting the frost of my winter
Teaching my soul how to sing.
No key, no force, just your presence
A truth that needed no plea,
You found the lock in my essence,
And set the captive free.*

*Good evening, metro's quiet hush,
Odd timing, a story's gentle rush.
I was drawn to a diary left behind,
Pages whispering emotions, hearts entwined.*

Build-up:

*"It's a world of raw emotions, neither male nor female,
Honest and profound, belonging to every soul's tale.
Love, loss, dreams—echoes in every heart,
A bridge of hearts where stories never part."*

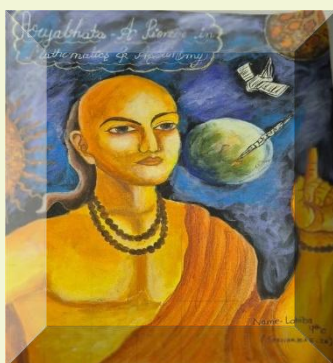

*In the metro's calm, I found a diary's trace,
A world of emotions in worn-out pages' space.
The final page held an invitation true,
"A message flowed: 'Let these words live on, pass it to anew.'"
I froze, realizing destiny's quiet call,
Not to close it, but to carry the story's thrall.
A cycle of emotions, from dreamer to dreamer passed,
The diary's story—a bridge of hearts that forever will last.*
