COMMUNITY OUTREACH PROJECT IN VRINDAVAN

Dear Parents, (Grades IX & XI)

Greetings!

As part of Ridge Valley School's Education for Life initiative, we are offering an opportunity for students of Grades IX and XI and their parents to participate in a special service project in Vrindavan. The students will get an opportunity to spend time with the aged mothers being helped by the Paramhansa Yogananda Charitable Trust, which provides physical, emotional, and spiritual support to those who have no one else.

During this one-day trip, on 12th November 2026, the students will serve the aged mothers by sharing sweets and chocolates with them, spending time with them, and building meaningful connections. One of life's greatest lessons is that sharing with others enriches our own learning experiences. Through this trip, the children will have the opportunity to understand and experience this valuable lesson firsthand.

For more information about our partner NGO, please visit:
https://yoganandatrust.org/

The trip is optional and the travel expense per person will be ₹600/-.

Please note that since we can accommodate only 20 people for the trip. Kindly confirm by Friday, 30th October 2026 in case you wish to send your ward for this trip.

Warm Regards

Ms. Neelu Singh
Principal
